EDITORIAL REQUIREMENTS

For: The Miami Herald, 200 So. Miami Avenue, Miami 30, Florida.

This paper is always glad to receive material for the women's pages, but would like it clearly specified as to whether the articles and pictures are exclusive, or have them dated for release so that they may be used the morning before the afternoon papers get them. Exclusives are preferred. Local outlets for items should also be supplied. Any material suitable for working up into articles on interior decorating is especially welcome. Address Kay Murphy.

For Norman Shigon, 5363 Berks Street, Philadelphia 31, Pa.

Mr. Shigon is a trade journal writer who represents business magazines in a variety of fields. He handles several publications in the home furnishings field and has placed stories from publicity agencies in these and general circulation publications. He has also entered public relations and is on the lookout for new clients.
